Buc-ee's, the Lake Jackson, Texas-based gas station chain, has chosen Daytona, Florida as the site of its first-ever store outside Texas. Construction will soon kickoff at the 32-acre site on the north side of LPGA Boulevard, east of Interstate 95. The 50,000 square foot Daytona Beach Travel Center will feature 120 fuel pumps, working kitchens and novelty shops, in addition to the usual offerings of snacks and candy sold at gas stations. The company, operates the largest convenience store (68,000 sqf) in the world in New Braunfels, Texas which features 120 fueling positions, 80 fountain drink dispensers, and 31 cash registers.
