CBRE is pleased to announce the appointment of Simon Orr to the position of Consultant in the Prague office's Tenant Representation and Global Corporate Services department. In this position Simon will be part of the team led by Katarina Wojtusiak and will specialize in serving CBRE's corporate and local occupier clients.

Simon was previously with DTZ's office agency department in Prague for 15 months. Simon holds a humanities degree from the University of Glasgow and is halfway through an MSc in Real Estate at the same university. He speaks English, German and Czech and his main interests are football, golf and music.

„We are very happy to welcome Simon into our Prague team which he will strengthen further thanks to his 7-year international experience in real estate in the Czech Republic and the United Kingdom“ says Katarina Wojtusiak, Head of Tenant Representation and Global Corporate Services.

CBRE is also pleased to announce the appointment of Lenka Vašíčková to the position of Junior Researcher in the Research department. In this position Lenka will be part of the Czech Research team led by Jana Prokopcová and will specialize in office occupier markets.

Lenka joined CBRE as a market analyst in the office agency team in 2011. Lenka graduated from the Faculty of Social Sciences at the Charles University in Prague in political science (MA). Lenka's hobbies include the study of financial markets, American political history and running.

Bert Hesselink, Director - Head of Office Agency commented: "I am very pleased that we are making investments into our research capabilities further improving the quality and speed of delivering market intelligence to our clients allowing them to perform at best amidst today's challenging market conditions."
