

German-based PlanRadar expanding internationally

10:47 2019-03-13

CJJEurope.com

Documents attached:

PlanRadar, a German digital documentation specialist in the property sector, established and communication for real estate and construction purposes, established two subsidiaries in Croatia and in the U.K. “We have already gained a number of major customers in Southeastern Europe in recent months, such as Kamgrad and Abilia,” commented Sander van de Rijdt, managing director and co-founder of PlanRadar. “To reflect this growth and the expected new business, four employees at our Croatian branch will be responsible for managing sales and customer care for Southeastern Europe in the future.” PlanRadar has gained over 2,000 new customers over the last 12 months while taking on 54 new employees over the past 12 months.