Hocevar is planning to open a new production plant in Svilajnac, central Serbia. The first phase of the project will create 50 new jobs, while an additional 100 people will be hired in the second phase. The plant will go up in Svilajnac's new entrepreneurship zone. Hocevar is a Slovenian manufacturing, trading and service company that is active in the food processing industry. It mainly exports to EU countries, Russia, South America and Asia.
