

Hungarian construction output increases by 67.6% in March

09:59 2019-05-15

CIJ Serbia

Documents attached:

Construction output in Hungary was up 67.6 percent y-o-y in March, according to the Central Statistical Office. The increase in March was driven by industrial, office and residential projects. Road, railway and engineering projects were also up during the month. Construction of buildings increased by 62.3 percent, while civil engineering projects grew by 78.8 percent. Construction output totaled HUF 342.5bn in March.