

Lidl opens two more stores in Serbia

10:57 2019-04-12

CIJ Serbia

Documents attached:

The German retail chain Lidl has opened two more stores in Serbia. One is located in Paracin in southern Serbia and the other in Vrbas, northern Serbia. Uniquely, the store in Paracin will have an exhibition in front area of the store to display ancient historical objects from that were unearthed during construction. Lidl financially supported archaeological research on the site before construction began. The retailer operates 22 stores across the country.