Mozura wind farm to open along Montenegrin coast

10:53 2018-11-28

CIJ News iDesk VII

Documents attached:

The new Mozura wind farm in Montenegro is scheduled to open this week. Located on a hill between the towns of Ulcinj and Bar along the Montenegrin coast, the 46 MW farm will feature 23 windmills that will help the country cut its greenhouse emissions and meet the EU's renewable energy standards. The project was overseen by the Maltese state-owned company Enemalta. The investment is valued at €40m.