

NCR building €90m tech campus in Belgrade

09:26 2019-05-15

CIJ Serbia

Documents attached:

NCR broke ground on a technology campus in Belgrade. The US tech company is investing around €90m in the project, with the Serbian government contributing €14m. Completion is scheduled for the beginning of 2021. NCR is planning to hire 1,000 people to work at its new campus, which reportedly will be the largest technology campus in Europe. Serbian President Aleksandar Vucic attended the cornerstone laying ceremony.