One of the Serbian leading gaming companies, Nordeus, has moved to its offices in New Belgrade. The company chose the GTC Green Heart project on the corner of Bulevar Milutina Milankovica and Bulevar umetnosti. The building will house more than 170 employees from 22 countries, with Nordeus picking the building because of its design which emphasize the creation of a productive space that's conducive to collaboration. The building offers a total of 6,000 sqm on 7 floors, with 3 underground levels for parking along with an auditorium for over 200 people.
