

Robot expands network in Bosnia

09:39 2019-05-15

CIJ News iDesk VII

Documents attached:

Bosnian supermarket chain Robot is expanding its network in Bosnia, with a new opening in Novi Travnik. The new 3,000 sqm hypermarket will feature a restaurant, children's playground and parking. Robot intends to hire 60 employees. As of September 2017, the company was operating 25 stores across Bosnia. Robot was founded in 1995 as a family-run company. It is headquartered in Sarajevo.